THANKSGIVING.

Hawaii will show gratitude not only for a year of bettering outlook financially and politically, but for a growth of public spirit. Our people, during the past year, have begun to help themselves. The work of the tourist committee and of the anti-mosquito committee, the restoration of the transport service here, the floating of the loan, the success of the primary measures against the lantana pest, the spread of the small farmer movement, the discoveries of Professor Koebele, the opening of Pearl Harbor, are things due to our own initiative. Providence helps those who do something on their own account and Hawaiian-Americans have done much. There is more to be proud of than to complain of in the record of the year and hope is rising so fast that Hawaii looks into the next twelve-month with a lively sense of favors to come.

THE NEW EXPANSION.

The Democrats propose to make a Presidential issue of Panama, alleging that the new republic is the fruit of a conspiracy of which the United States was the party of the first part. A similar charge, it will be remembered, was made about the revolution of 1893 in these islands; but when Congress called for the papers in the case there was no proof found of any active participation by the United States in the events which led up to the dethronement of the Queen. Marines were landed to protect property as they had been at Alexandria in 1882 and as they were the other day in San Domingo; but Congress was unable to fix the blame of the Hawaiian revolution upon them or upon the Government behind them. We believe it will be the same way with Panama. At least a week ago Congress called for the papers in the case and if anything incriminating had been found the world would have heard from it before this. What will probably develop is that the people of Panama, exasperated at the unwillingness of the Colombian government to give them the canal upon which their prosperity depended, organized a revolution, aprising the United States envoy or consuls of their intent; whereupon the United States started its fleet that way and prepared to take full advantage of the crisis as soon as a lawful government could be formed which would give a canal treaty in return for recognition. So far it acted in strict accord with international law; and when it went further and prepared to protect the Panama republic from Colombian assault it did so under the terms of old but still vital treaties with the government of New Granada, the one which that of Colombia succeeded.

In law the position of the United States seems impregnable, admitting, if we choose, that the revolutionists played directly into American hands. It cannot be proved, however, that Americans guided them in that course. Panama began the trouble when the canal treaty was under debate at Bogota. Said General Pedro del Ospina, a Senator, "I warn you not to carry too far your policy of oppression. Remember that the Government is not in possession of all the arms that were used against it in the late rebellion." Panama took the revolutionary stand as soon as the defeat of the canal treaty became final. She shook the tree and the pear fell where she apparently wanted it to fall, into the lap of the United States.

Of course the Democrats are doing their best to discredit American good faith in the matter, but in doing so they merely discredit their own record as a party. If there was ever a party of imperialism, expansion run to extremes, it is the Democratic—the party of the Ostend Manifesto against Cuba; the party of the Texas seizure, a case where all the Democratic charges against the Republicans in the Panama affair were realized on a vast scale; the party which invaded and practically conquered California before a declaration of war with Mexico. For fifty years, service to national expansion was the boast of the Democracy. How is it that expansion at Republican hands—the kind that is clean of fraud and conquest—has now become a crime?

It will be noticed that Parker delayed his congratulations to the new Governor until after he had found his efforts to defeat Carter's confirmation had failed.

The Board of Health, having a surplus under the six months' bill for the pay of inspectors did not hand it back to the Treasury but divided it among those officials. The amount was not large, which was wherein it differed from the principle at stake. It has not seemed to occur to the Board that these are hard times and that the Treasury needs every dollar that belongs to it; incidentally that the possession of a surplus, under any circumstances, does not signify that the money ought to be given away. The Advertiser notes that the Board has raised the pay of inspectors from $35 to $100 per month. Men quite as competent and responsible hire out to the Rapid Transit Company for ten hours a day work at $90 per month and there are always more applicants than jobs.

The formation of the new political firm of Wilcox & Cayless, Unltd., is announced elsewhere in this paper. Both partners have a wide experience in politics. Mrs. Wilcox having run the Home Rule party for three years and Mr. Cayless having been twice run over by it. The new firm will do business in politics exclusively, having taken a contract to organize the Home Rule Democratic party. Proposals for new contracts may be made in person or by letter. Terms reasonable. No agents.

Oahu Prison Thanksgiving.

Two pages of a remarkably neat and artistically illuminated manuscript paper called the O. P. Echo are taken up with the following program of Thanksgiving services at Oahu Penitentiary under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.: All Hail ..... Hymn 7 Congregation. We Praise Thee, O God ..... Hymn 23 Prayer ..... Mr. John M. Martin Proclamation of the President. Read by X. Y. Z. "Glory to God" ..... Hawaiian Chorus Music from Wagner's "Lohengrin." Remarks ..... Mr. A. F. Cooke Selection, vocal solo. Mrs. Annis Montague Turner. Selection, solo ..... Mr. Lutz "O Give Thanks" ..... Psalm 136 O. P. Quartette.

Duet. Mrs. Raseman and Miss Edith Perkins. Remarks ..... Mr. John M. Martin Selection ..... O. P. Quartette Invocation. "America" ..... Congregation Another page contains the President's Thanksgiving proclamation and skits like this: "A rumor has reached this office that John Hay, Secretary of State, is in favor of the Open Door. So are we." The editor of the prison paper is supposed to be Jean Sabate.

Kaai's Musicales.

A purely mandolin and guitar recital is announced by Mr. Ernest Kaai, the gifted artist and teacher, at the Young Hotel roof garden Monday evening, Nov. 30th at 8 o'clock. The entertainers comprise Mr. Kaai's pupils and is the second musicale of its kind ever offered the musical public of Honolulu, in that students of all ages unite to interpret by the liquid tones of the stringed instruments the composer's fancies. Mr. Kaai's ability and his aptitude for instruction is in itself a guarantee of the high excellence of the program.

Turkey Dinner for Artillerymen.

The soldiers of the 6th Company, Coast Artillery, U. S. A., at Camp McKinley, will sit down today to as good a Thanksgiving dinner as will be served in more pretentious places. The accompanying menu will indicate to a large number who have little idea how Uncle Sam's boys live, that they are pretty well fed. This is the artillerymen's menu for his turkey dinner:

SOUP
Oyster soup, a la Chesapeake Bay
ENTREES.
French peas Potatoes (au Gratin)
String Beans (Golden Wax)
RELISHES.
Radishes Onions (Petit)
Lettuce
MEATS.
Boiled Sugar Cured Ham
Roast Turkey, Cranberry Sauce
DESSERT.
Assorted Cakes
Mince and Cranberry Pie
Candy Nuts
American Cheese Crackers
Coffee Lemonade
Cigars

The Hen Hatching Goose Eggs.

Many a hen has dreamed of a large family of chickens and found later that she loafed a month on goose eggs—buy your football supplies of us and you won't score goose eggs, pearson and potter company.

Song Service and Y. W. C. A. Fair.

A very large number of people attended the Thanksgiving song service at the Y. W. C. A. yesterday noon, nearly a hundred persons taking lunch.

The program was opened by Miss Marie von Holt who gave a piano solo. Mrs. Frank Atherton rendered a vocal solo, and was followed by Miss Keake who gave an excellent violin solo. The closing number was a trio by the Misses Charlotte Hall, Marion Dillingham and Harriet Austin.

The gymnasium has been decorated for the opening of the fair to be held there tomorrow and Saturday, including tomorrow evening. This fair is not for the benefit of the Y. W. C. A., which receives no commission whatever from the members of the Association who put their fancy and other handwork on sale.

Wedding Bells.

The following invitations are out: Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Walker request the pleasure of your company at the marriage of their daughter, Matilda Papalealaina, to Mr. Adolph Constabel, Saturday afternoon, December the fifth, nineteen hundred and three, German Lutheran Church, at four o'clock, Honolulu.

THANKSGIVING BACK HOME

Dreams of the soldier, statesman,
Of scholar, and lord of trade,
Grew in the quiet shelter
Of that fair elm-tree shade;
And while our thanks may gather,
Joy-misted in our eyes,
For this returning hand-clasp
And these November skies,
Somehow the calm abundance
Of our ripe-fruited days
Calls not so much for offering
Of song-voiced prayer and praise
As those far hours together
When raply you and I
Saw, through our young ambitions,
The pride of earth go by.

—Lewis W. Smith in November Every-body's.

HAWAII ASKS FOR STATEHOOD

WASHINGTON, November 17.—The far-off Territory of Hawaii is urging its claims to Statehood.

The Statehood idea is the paramount one now in the House and Senate, and Hawaii is seeking to get a star on the National banner, especially since the great impetus has been given to this general matter by the personal visit of many Senators and Representatives, through the courtesy of Representative Hearst recently, through the West. The House has received the petition of Hawaii. It is in part as follows: "That the Congress of the United States be and is hereby respectfully requested to pass at an early date an act enabling the people of this Territory, who are citizens thereof and duly qualified to vote, to meet in convention and adopt a State constitution whereby and whereunder this Territory may be admitted as a State into this Union. "Resolved, that the Governor of this Territory be and is hereby requested to transmit a duly certified copy of this resolution to the President of the United States, the Speaker of the House of Representatives."

"TEMPEST TOSSED" DREW APPLAUSE

"Tempest Tossed" as produced by the Sanford Company at the Orpheum last night was the best play they have yet given.

There was plenty of comedy and many thrilling situations. The end of the third act, showing the storm at sea with two sail boats tossing upon the waves, was by far the finest piece of scenic work ever done on any stage in Honolulu and it deserved the eight enthusiastic curtain calls which it received.

William Desmond as the hero, Tom Preston, acted in a manly way and looked the hero he portrayed. The character work of Griffith Wray as Cy Long was very clever and showed the versatility of this young actor. Henderson was as mean a villain as any one would care to see, while Walsh as Jabez Haggard did the best work we have yet seen him do and Wallace as Zachary Pegg the village constable, and Walter Johnson as Jake Smith, were both good.

Laura Wall was excellent as Mary Haggard and acted with much feeling, while Ethelle Earle as Nellie Preston had a character different from her usual roles and showed her ability to act the injured and suffering girl as well as the cruel adventuress. Miss Smith as Polly Perkins was chic and clever and is becoming a great favorite with the Orpheum audiences. "Tempest Tossed" will be repeated tonight and should pack the house.

After the wedding: "But they told me you had money." "And they bunched me into thinking you were rich." "Well, what's to be done about it?" "Let's fall in love just for spite."—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

All Humors

Are impure matters which the skin, liver, kidneys and other organs can not take care of without help, there is such an accumulation of them.

They litter the whole system. Pimples, boils, eczema and other eruptions, loss of appetite, that tired feeling, bilious turns, fits of indigestion, dull headaches and many other troubles are due to them.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Remove all humors, overcome all their effects, strengthen, tone and invigorate the whole system.

"I had salt rheum on my hands so that I could not work. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and it drove out the humor. I continued its use till the sores disappeared." Mrs. IRA O. BROWN, Rumford Falls, Me.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

THE REASON

may be that you won't take our advice.

It's just impossible to make some people do the right thing—They just won't and that settles it. Now it's no use trying to do good in such cases—but to those who actually do want help—EYE HELP—the kind we give—we want to demonstrate the amount of good we can do them.

Needn't think for a moment that we advise glasses unless absolutely certain they are needed.

DON'T GROPE ABOUT IN THE DARK

If you use kerosene lamps perhaps you sometimes come home at night and grope about for matches, stubbing your nose against the door jam. Perhaps you sometimes overturn an expensive lamp shade in the search and when the matches are found burn your fingers while trying to remove the lamp chimney with one hand. If this diagnosis applies to you we say

USE INCANDESCENT LAMPS

No smoke—no smell—no odor—no dirt—no danger of fire, but a perfect white light. Cost is only a shade more than kerosene. Estimates on wiring cheerfully given.
